

WORLD VISION MALAYSIA SCHOOL ENGAGEMENT GUIDELINES

---

INVOLVEMENT IN STUDENT PROJECTS

World Vision believes in the power of education, and is open to helping students with their school projects, where possible. Student groups, clubs or societies that are keen to learn more about World Vision can email a formal proposal to admin@worldvision.com.my with the subject line “School Engagement”.

The proposal would help us gain a better understanding of your project, and should contain the following information:

a) Background

- Name of group/club/society and school/college/university undertaking the project
- An official letter from the teacher/lecturer authorising the project
- Name, email address and contact number of the project leader, team members and teacher/lecturer

b) Description of the project

- Objectives/purpose/theme
- Achievable targets/results
- Expected learning outcomes/applications
- Project timeline
- Other organisations/guests that will be featured in the project
- Follow-up actions (if any)
- Success evaluation criteria

c) Information about World Vision

- What role does World Vision play in your project? How can we help?
- How would information provided by World Vision add value to your project?

- How would you further utilise the information provided by World Vision (not limited to your project)?
